Start Date	16 May 2024	End Date	16 May 2024
Program Theme	Changing Study Habits, Social Spaces vs. Silent Spaces, Comfort and Accessibility, The Role of Technology, Redefining Libraries for the Modern Era, Impact on Learning and Community, Cultural and Psychological Factors, Future of Public Learning Spaces
No. of Students Participated	0	No. of Faculty Participated	19
No. of External Participants	0	Mode of Session	Offline
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>➤ Identify Changing Preferences: To understand why cafes are becoming preferred study and workspaces compared to libraries, focusing on environmental, social, and convenience factors.</li><li>➤ Evaluate the Impact on Learning and Productivity: To assess how the choice of workspace (cafe vs. library) influences focus, retention, productivity, and overall learning outcomes.</li><li>➤ Analyze the Role of Technology: To explore the technological needs (Wi-Fi, charging points, etc.) and how they contribute to the shift towards cafes over libraries.</li><li>➤ Examine Social and Cultural Influences: To investigate the role of social interaction and cultural trends that make cafes more appealing as workspaces than libraries.</li><li>➤ Propose Improvements for Libraries: To develop strategies and propose design or policy changes that could make libraries more attractive to modern students and professionals, integrating aspects of cafes that contribute to their popularity.</li></ul>
Benefits in terms of Learning/ Skill/ Knowledge Obtained	Participants will gain a deeper understanding of the reasons behind the growing preference for cafes over libraries, including how different environments impact productivity and focus. They will develop awareness of the social and cultural factors influencing workspace choices and learn how to effectively use technology in both settings. Additionally, they will explore strategies for revitalizing libraries, making them more appealing and user-friendly for modern learners. The comparative analysis of cafes and libraries will help attendees make more informed decisions about where to work or study, enhancing both their learning experiences and productivity.
Professional speaker	Mr.Amrut Deshmukh
Description	On May 16, 2024, the online workshop “Crowded Cafes, Empty Libraries” was held at 1:00 PM in AG-02, led by Mr. Amrut Deshmukh, a chartered accountant and TEDx speaker. The workshop explored the rising preference for cafes over libraries for study and work. Discussions covered changing study habits, the contrast between social and silent spaces, and the importance of comfort and accessibility. Mr. Deshmukh emphasized that while cafes provide a vibrant atmosphere with amenities like Wi-Fi and food, libraries struggle to attract users due to their formal setups. The session underscored the need for libraries to adapt by incorporating elements that make cafes appealing, ensuring they remain relevant in today's educational landscape. Overall, the workshop provided valuable insights into the future of public learning spaces.

Conclusion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Comprehensive Insight: Participants gained a deep understanding of the shifting preferences towards cafes as favored study and work environments.</li> <li>➤ Expert Exploration: Led by Mr. Amrut Deshmukh, attendees delved into the key factors that make cafes appealing, including their vibrant atmosphere, flexibility, and accessible amenities.</li> <li>➤ Identifying Challenges: The workshop highlighted the challenges that traditional libraries face in attracting users due to their more formal and structured settings.</li> <li>➤ Call for Evolution: Discussions underscored the necessity for libraries to evolve and integrate popular elements from cafes to enhance their relevance and appeal.</li> <li>➤ Engaging Dialogues: The session fostered valuable conversations about innovative strategies for improving public learning spaces to meet the needs of modern learners.</li> <li>➤ Future Relevance: Participants left with actionable insights aimed at ensuring libraries remain effective and inviting environments for study and collaboration.</li> <li>➤ Inspiration for Innovation: Attendees were encouraged to think creatively about revitalizing libraries and adapting to the changing landscape of learning environments.</li> <li>➤ Continued Engagement: Appreciation was expressed for attendees' participation, along with an invitation to join future discussions focused on the evolution of public learning spaces.</li> </ul>
